if I talk about concepts I am already expressing myself through them

I am their arrival point

exchange currency

acting

something that is happening

links of a chain

they are automatic

the silent backing of each of our reasons

they translate me

they translate m

they trans

they t

th

in thinking myself

horizontal events

in hybridizing they mutate

and I think myself

only through them

all that is left is walking inside the concepts which then are nothing but who

I am

future look
future look
seen from a
seen from a
of my path
of my path
and the concept
and the concept

acting
exchange currency
acting

an ending
